

For immediate release

MAP Chosen

to Provide Fundraising Counsel for Wesley Prep

School's impressive growth creates need for additional facilities

MCKINNEY, TX, April 1, 2010 – Mission Advancement Professionals, a leading provider of relational fundraising services to nonprofit organizations, today announced it has been chosen by Wesley Prep of Dallas, Texas, to provide fundraising counsel for their upcoming capital campaign with the goal of expanding and improving the facilities of the school.

“We chose MAP because of their knowledge and in-depth experience in all areas of fundraising, particularly, with schools,” said Linda Altick, Executive Director of Wesley Prep. “We are confident that with MAP’s exemplary leadership abilities and proven expertise, we will have a very successful capital campaign.”

“Wesley Prep has been a leader in Christian primary education in Dallas for over 40 years. MAP is proud to partner with such a fine educational institution with such passionate leaders as Linda Altick, the teachers, and the many committed volunteers of the school in leading their capital campaign,” said Schuyler Lehman, President of MAP.

About Mission Advancement Professionals LLC

Mission Advancement Professionals is a full-service national fundraising firm offering services designed to assist nonprofit organizations of any size with their most limiting factor – growing their fundraising resources to match their expanding missions. Working with a wide variety of nonprofit organizations such as schools, churches, social service agencies, hospitals, and cultural institutions, MAP offers the full spectrum of relational fundraising services including counsel on capital campaigns, annual fund development, major gifts planning & development, funding diagnostics, nonprofit board and staff development and training, planned giving and more.

Additional information about MAP is available at www.missionadvancement.com.

About Wesley Prep

Wesley Prep, a ministry of Lovers Lane United Methodist Church, began in 1968. Today, the school's program develops children from six months through sixth grade and continues to operate with the same pillars that have made it such a remarkable center for child education and development. Wesley Prep, as part of the greater church, is based on the goal of engendering students with enlightened minds and compassionate spirits. Additional information about Wesley Prep is available at www.wesleyprep.org.

#

Media Contacts

Public Relations
Lee Slaton
214-535-1668
cslaton@sbcglobal.net